That many are in this state is highly probable from all that has transpired. After making some general remarks respecting his efforts to distribute books, etc., and to promote temperance, Mr. Schneider concludes as follows. It will be perceived from the foregoing statements that in all the places visited by us we found more or less that was interesting. The commencement of what, in its natural tendency, will finally result, with the divine blessing, in the revival of pure religion, seems to be apparent Though the indications of this are very faint in some cases, yet they exist Some of the people are evidently reflecting on the errors of their church, and are acquiring an increasing willingness to renounce them. Though little appears on the surface, it is plain that an under current in favor of the gospel has been set in motion. Hence it is obvious that increasing favor to the cause of truth may be expected with every passing year. The Spirit of the Lord is evidently moving on the Armenian mind in various places. Proofs of this are constantly multiplying. And the inference seems to be warranted by facts already ascertained, that in every Armenian community in this empire, to which the influence of our stations and books has reached, there are a few who are beginning to feel the power of the truth, and to seek for the good old paths, which their church has long forsaken....
