All we around him wear a seemly woe, But one upon her heart received the blow; And as she bent above her mother s tomb, The while her sire we gathered to the gloom. Now winter laid a haud upon her hair. Full many a weeping peasant standing there Averred that he, beholding her to-day. Seemed to behold her mother passed away. Cameos Selected From The Worrs Of Walter Savage Laxdor. By E C. Stedman and T. B. Aldrich. With an Introduction. Boston: JamesR. Osgood Co. It seems singular indeed that some collection of the poems scattered through Landor s writings- should not have been made before now; and it seems not equally singular perhaps, but certainly to be regretted, that the collection should not have fallen into other hands than those of Messrs....
