Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Great Tree: On Boston Common At a meeting of the Boston Society of Natural History some time since, the age of the large elm on Boston Common became accidentally a subject of discussion. On this discussion, it appeared there was some difference of opinion, which led the writer of these remarks to make inquiry into the facts, and endeavor to ascertain the age of the tree. This inquiry seems to be of no great importance at first view; but, independently of serving for the gratification of a proper curiosity, it may assist us in establishing the period of the duration of this valuable ornament to our country. We propose, then, to notice this tree, not because it is a larger tree than any other in the country, nor because it is older or taller.
