AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 52 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. BOOK REVIEW: Beanum Infinitum - Book 1 by PB Gookenschleim-Reviewed by S. Melton, Synchronized Chaos, Online International MagazineThe premise of Beanum Infinitum is a unique and fascinating idea - to explain the basic concepts of existentialism, with references to advanced physics and astronomy and a sprinkling of absurdist humor throughout - and all in the format of a whimsical childrens book. While some aspects of the total creation are flawed, those who take the time to read this unique piece of literature may find it to be A Legume in the Rough. A couple of things the reader will want to know before purchasing and/or reading this book on Amazon. First, while this story is in a 44-page childrens book format, it is not a book for young children. Or at least, not for children whose parents would mind reading the f-word occasionally interjected at somewhat random moments. Also, while the book is available as a self-published finished work via AuthorHouse, the author describes it as more of a promotional issue, which explains the intermixed pencil drawings and hand-written side notes alongside the cleaner-formatted text and color...
