RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 40 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)47886608 Subject: Mercury in the body. Excerpt: . . . irresponsible to ask questions about why that happened Of course not. We have a lot of doctors who serve on Federal advisory committees who have serious conflict of interest problems. They are allowed to vote on vaccines made by companies that they get money from. Is it irresponsible to ask questions about conflicts of interest Of course not, especially where public health and safety are concerned. Today we are holding a hearing about why mercury is put into vaccines that are given to children. Is that irresponsible Of course not. If someone holds hearings about mismanagement at the Department of Education, that does not mean they are anti-education. That means they want our educational system to be as well run as possible. That is the way that I feel about our vaccine policies. No area is so sacrosanct that the world will come to an end if we ask some sensible questions and expect to get some sensible answers. I think this kind of oversight will make our vaccine program stronger not weaker....
